

The Calhoun Upper School Haiti Relief Committee and the Vassar Haiti Project invite you to support ongoing relief efforts in Haiti:

Art for Life: Haiti Benefit Thursday, April 21, 2011

The Calhoun School, 433 West End Avenue @ 81st Street

Haitian Art & Silent Art Auction, 3:30-8pm

HAITIAN ART & HANDCRAFTS SALE: More than 200 original paintings, iron sculptures, jewelry and handcrafts by Haitian artists will be available for purchase, ranging from $50 and up, through the Vassar Haiti Project.

SILENT ART AUCTION, with paintings, photography, jewelry and crafts by Calhoun community members, will be open to bidding throughout the day.

TO SUBMIT ARTWORK TO THE AUCTION: Artists who would like to make a donation of their work to the Silent Auction may contact Debbie Aronson, Director of Community Service, 212-497-6508.

PANEL DISCUSSION: "Where Does Haiti Go From Here?" 6:30-7:30pm

JACQUE ROCS, Haitian filmmaker (Pluie d'Espoir) responsible for setting up movie screens in tent cities across Haiti

DR. DEBORAH OTTENHEIMER, Haiti medical relief worker, humanitarian and Calhoun parent

WATER.ORG REPRESENTATIVE, helping fund and install sustainable water resources in third world countries

LIZABETH PARAVISINI-GEBERT, Prof. of Caribbean culture and literature, Vassar College, Dept. of Hispanic Studies

WHERE THE PROCEEDS WILL GO :

Water.org; The Peligre School of Hope in Haiti; and The Vassar Haiti Project, which funds four initiatives in Chermaitre, Haiti: Education, Reforestation, Water & Health.